Speaker: Dr Terry Swenson

Terry Swenson, DMin, MDiv, serves as campus chaplain and an associate professor of the School of Religion for Loma Linda University. Working with young people has been a constant focus throughout his pastoral ministry in Northern and Central California. The opportunity to focus his ministry on students at a university level attracted him to his current position eleven years ago.

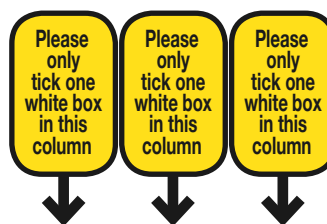

Pastor Swenson recently completed a Doctor of Ministry degree from George Fox University, Oregon with an emphasis in the areas of postmodernism, cross-cultural and global interactions and leadership.

He is married to the former Marian Sanker for the past thirty years and the proud parents of four children, Jasmine (LLU SDH), Mia, Crystal and Jared.

1. Christ's Way of Personal Evangelism

Clifton Glasgow

In this interactive presentation we explore vital principles in how Jesus interacted with people. We will explore the how's and the why's and take away a conviction of what God is calling us to be in our sphere of influence for Him.

2

2. Every Day Opportunities

Clifton Glasgow

This exciting presentation helps us to 'see' and take advantage of every opportunity God gives to us to share Jesus. Whether God is leading you to share a little word in season, or more at the right time, you will leave thrilled and more confident as we identify different types of opportunities and how to make the most of them.

3

3. How to Have a Daily Devotional Life

Clifton Glasgow

This is at the heart of one's Christian experience! Get this right and everything else will fall into place. Learn spiritual principles in how to have a daily devotional life. We will discuss, encourage and pray that God will cause us to hunger and thirst after Him so that we may meet personally with God everyday of our lives.

4c. Spirit Gifting - part 3

Ed Gallagher

You may be a disciple and you might feel called to minister. But how? What about your uncertainty, weakness and inability? This is a series of three completely new studies on how God gives us tailor-made ability through a mysterious process called spiritual gifting. Each session has a distinctive focus. Bible-driven, practical, interactive. You will find a non-traditional and unexpected approach to this critical subject.

5

5. Leading Disciples to Maturity

Eddie Tupa'i

This workshop gives practical counsel on how to lead disciples of Christ to grow spiritually in the areas of commitment, conflict and compassion. It will explore how we are to deal with spiritual immaturity in ourselves and in the people we are leading. It will provide tools that you can use to help people to be committed, to work together and to care for each other.

6a. The Beauty of Seeking God's Face - part 1

6b. The Challenge of Living God's Life - part 2

6c. The Privilege of Teaching God's Word - part 3

Jean Noel Adeline

Biblically speaking, the end result of the process of discipleship should be that disciples become disciplers. Paul puts it beautifully when he says to Timothy, "...the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also." (2 Timothy 2:2)

In other words, a true disciple is one who effectively passes on the truth to others in such a way that they in return will affect the world in generations to come.

However, to be such a disciple one must first fulfill the three steps in the process of making disciples. Prophet Ezra describes them as follows: "For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel. (Ezra 7:10)

The first step is to seek God and to learn His ways. Secondly we must live out what we have learned from God. And thirdly, we must lead others to Him and teach them His ways.

In these three Workshops I will show that the order here, is crucial, and all the three steps are vital for discipleship to be complete.

7a. Strategies for the Discipleship of Children at Church - part 1

7b

7b. Strategies for Discipling Children at Home - part 2

Julie Weslake

Children matter to God, and churches, parents and families have an incredible opportunity to shape their minds and hearts. In fact, most of a child's behavioural habits, core values and spiritual beliefs are firmly in place by the age of 13 and these are extremely difficult to change in later years. There is a race on for the minds of children. We CAN raise spiritual giants and make disciples of children, but it takes purposeful, integrated strategies involving the whole church and in particular the home. Children are hungry for the love and hope that only God can give them. Julie will discuss the research that tells us what children need and give you skills and ideas that will equip you to be effective in this most strategic ministry.

8. Faith Or Sight?

Lance Boulton

As followers of Jesus Christ, are our lives marked by the power he promised? Or are we unbelieving believers and practical atheists – we carry the name of Jesus but deny his power? There are 2 big things that prevent us from walking in faith as Jesus desires. Explore how these 2 things cause us to walk by sight (and not faith) and how to let Christ directly tackle the ways these 2 things cripple us in every area of our lives (including identity, addictions, idols, acceptance, stress, and coping mechanisms).

9. SIMPLE Discipleship

Paul Siope

Everything starts with discipleship. That's why Jesus commanded us to do it! Miss it and 10% of the church leadership ends up chasing programmatic solutions for 90% of its problematic consumers. We are called to make disciples not programs for consumers. Making disciples is not our option it's Christ command to all believers. Learn how you as part of the church can change these problematic percentages by SIMPLE discipleship.

10

10. Discipleship SHIFT towards MULTIPLICATION

Paul Siope

Discipleship is Jesus counter cultural approach to changing the world around you and the church you belong to. Why is it so fuzzy? What does it take to make the shift? What are the critical implications? Learn how you as part of the church can make the Discipleship SHIFT towards MULTIPLICATION.

11c

11c. Discovering God with New Eyes - part 3

Richard Newson

Some of us are familiar with it, and some of us avoid it. Some relish reading it and gain much, and some are left wanting . . . wondering how to understand it. The Bible is complex and simple all at once. Discovering God With New Eyes is a fresh take on exploring the Bible and finding God. With some simple insights and study tools, this course will widen and deepen your understanding of who God is and how He thinks and feels about us.

12. The Church and the Postmodern Culture:

Creating Community and Building Christ's Kingdom

Terry Swenson

The world and the culture has changed! The Gospel and Christ's call to build His Kingdom has not. But things don't seem to be working like they used to. People are different. Communities are different. What's going on? What's changed? How can we present "Present Truth" to the present culture? During this workshop you will discover the differences between the modern and postmodern eras. You will find out what people are focusing on and looking for and how we, as the church, can provide those things. You will receive information that will empower your local church to effectively incarnate Christ's Kingdom in your context.
